

Private

My dear Sir,

I consider the Lord Chamberlain (under the influence of Mr Currie & Payne Collier) highly to blame for he has shewn (as our deputy plainly told him) a shameful preference to Waspate. He sent us an order on Monday to withdraw the dancing from our bills, when we never advertised any, & the upshot of it is, that he allows Moses to sing at Covent Garden, but will not allow the cent of the infidel Pharaoh, even to walk on the stage at Drury Lane. & will come before Parliament & then I hope he'll get his knuckles 'capped'.
In the mean, were I an Editor, I look him lustily

Yours
My dear

Yours always
R M M

It is also an outrageous thing, that the day after our letter's appearance, with the Duke, Mr Callies is allowed to publish in the Chronicle false statements of the case.

as the r

To Immediate

S. Morand
Globe

